

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy

Introduction

Brickendon recognises that it has a responsibility to take a robust approach to child labour, slavery and human trafficking. We are committed to preventing child labour, slavery and human trafficking in our corporate activities, and to ensuring that our supply chains are free from child labour, slavery and human trafficking.

We are proud of the steps we have taken to combat child labour, modern slavery and human trafficking. This statement sets out the actions we have taken to ensure our supply chain and our organisation are free from child labour, slavery and human trafficking.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our organisation's child labour, slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 2019.

We have in place systems to:

- Identify and assess potential risk areas in our supply chains.
- Mitigate the risk of child labour, slavery and human trafficking occurring in our supply chains.
- Monitor potential risk areas in our supply chains.
- Protect whistle blowers.

This statement has been approved by the organisation's senior executive team, who will review and update it annually.
